Peepshow and Holly's World stars Holly Madison and Josh Strickland spent part of their day off from the Planet Hollywood adult revue at the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim game in Anaheim, Calif., yesterday afternoon, with Strickland singing the national anthem and Madison throwing out the first pitch.

Contributing photographer Scott Harrison was at Anaheim Stadium for Vegas DeLuxe's photo gallery of Strickland and Madison, who begins a vacation in Florida on Monday and has photo shoots planned at Disneyland and Universal Studios and wants to volunteer at an animal shelter during her break in the South.

Madison and Strickland both donned team jerseys, while the man in the black button-down shirt and jeans is Steve Flynn, Madison's publicist. The trio took part in America's Got Talent alumni Recycled Percussion's grand opening at Studio 54 in MGM Grand on Tuesday night.

The Angels defeated the Cleveland Indians 4-3 after 16 innings -- yes, seven extra innings in an afternoon game!
